

I fully support the use of cellphone in aircraft!

I am a private pilot and I know dozens of pilots, the ability to check car rental fuel availability etc. would be great. Adding to the safety of our operations. And the ability to communicate in the event of difficulty or emergency being enhanced by having cell service.